

Formwork Awareness

Aim	This course is designed to train individuals to deal with a range of safety implications in work involving formwork and/or falsework.
Descriptor	This course trains participants to avoid hazards and risks involving formwork and/or falsework. The training will cover the dangers associated with formwork collapse, safely managing adjacent buildings and structures, assessing ground conditions, electricity awareness, dangers associated with mixing components, and other associated risks.
Duration	3-4 hours.
Accreditation	Our awareness courses for not accredited.
Course Size	20 participants with 1 trainer.
WHS Compliance	W.H&S Regulation 2017. W.H&S Act 2011. National Code of Practice–First Aid in the Workplace 2015.
Course Content	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Safely erecting, altering and dismantling formwork and falsework2. Inspection and maintenance of formwork and falsework3. Competency and licensing4. Identifying Risks:<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Collapsing formwork or falsework- Major functional requirements- Ground conditions- Electrical lines- Falls and falling objects- Loading materials- lifting points- Mixing components- Unauthorised access to a construction site5. Managing risks and emergency plans